One additional point per pony that completed the first round of the class will be added to the base Zone HOTY points earned.

III. USHJA Year-End Awards

- A. For USHJA year-end awards purposes, a computer ranking system tracks both money won as well as the points earned (see point table in II.F) by pony and rider in each zone as well as nationally. Awards will be presented at the conclusion of the competition year.
1. In order for points earned to be applied toward USHJA standings and awards, a minimum of six (6) entries must compete in the first round, regardless of competition Channel.
 2. For the minimum number of entries required to earn National and Zone HOTY Championship points see II.B.

IV. Order of Go

- A. The order of go must be posted a minimum of one hour prior to the start of the class.
- B. In the case of multiple ponies being ridden by the same rider, every effort will be made so that there will be a minimum of eight ponies (if available) separating multiple rides. All ponies must be ridden in the sequence that appears on the jumping order in the first round of the competition. In the second-round ponies will return in reverse order of their first-round scores (lowest to highest). Due to multiple rides or rider conflicts, any rider may elect to move up in the order. Should a jump-off occur, ponies will return in the same order in which they competed in the second round.
- C. The draw may be performed by hand or Competition Management may host a computer draw.

V. Judging System

- A. The judging panel will provide one score and the scores from each round will be added together to obtain the overall total for each pony. This overall total score will determine the final overall standings for the class.
- B. The Classic Hunter Style Round shall be judged and numerically scored on quality, movement, jumping style, manners and way of going. Pace and brilliance are to be rewarded.
- C. The Handy Hunter Round shall be judged and numerically scored on quality, movement, jumping style, manners and way of going. Pace and brilliance are to be rewarded. Handiness is taken into account in the judges' base score. Jumping decorations to utilize a shorter track is NOT permissible.
- D. The Jump-Off Round, if required, shall be judged and numerically scored on quality, movement, jumping style, manners and way of going. Pace and brilliance are to be rewarded. Handiness is taken into account in the judges' base score. Jumping decorations to utilize a shorter track is NOT permissible.

E. Soundness will be judged on the closing circle at the end of the Classic round. No jog is required at the conclusion of the Handy round.

F. Hunt and Go Format

Please note this Hunt and Go is judged differently than the International and National Hunter Derby Hunt and Go.

Alternatively, the Hunt and Go option may be utilized in lieu of the traditional format. The Hunt and Go format will consist of two (2) phases, one (1) Classic Hunter and one (1) Handy Hunter. The phases will be jumped consecutively. All participants will complete both the Classic and the Handy portions even if penalties (rails, refusals, etc.) are incurred. Major penalties (falls, 3 refusals, off course, etc.) will result in elimination.

1. Standard Hunt and Go Format

- a. The Classic Hunter Round, consisting of five to seven (5-7) fences, shall be judged on quality, movement, jumping style, manners and way of going.
- b. After the completion of the classic round horses will pick up their pace and pass through a set of markers to begin their handy portion of the class. Riders are not permitted to walk or pause between rounds. The Handy Hunter Round, consisting of five to seven (5-7), shall be judged on quality, movement, jumping style, manners and way of going. Pace, brilliance, and a shorter track are to be rewarded. A horse/rider may not jump decorations or other obstacles in order to create a shorter track.
- c. Two (2) judges are required to judge the class. Each judge will be designated either the Classic Hunter Phase or the Handy Hunter Phase. Each will provide a single score for their designated phase. The scores from each judge will be added together to determine the total score and placement.
- d. A judging assistant may be present during all phases of the competition. The duties of the judging assistant include notifying the Judges if a rail comes down. The judging assistant is not required to be a licensed official and is not responsible for the scoring of the judging panels. A competition staff member may fill this role.
- e. For the Hunt and Go Format it is recommended that the judge designated to the Handy Hunter phase be the tie breaker.

VI. Tie Breaking Procedures

- A. The judging panel may not award the same base score to any two competitors in any one round unless a competitor's score is below the cut-off score.
- B. Unless the prize list states that more than 12 entries are to return for the second round, only the top 12 ponies from the first round are eligible to return for the second round.
- C. All ties for overall first place in the class will compete in a jump-off round. In the case of unsafe conditions preventing a jump-off from being held, the tie will be broken using the second-round score.
- D. Ties for other than first place in the overall standings will be broken using the second-round score.

VII. Awards Presentation

- A. Judges are required to pin to 12th place (plus two reserve placings).
- B. All riders in the top 12 overall (or their designated representative if not available) must ride for ribbons in order to receive prizemoney.
- C. Although not required, a show may choose to award separate ribbons for the first and second round if so stated in the prize list.
- D. Competition management may offer additional awards. (e.g., highest placing junior owner, highest placing pony per size - small, medium, large, highest placing rider competing on only one entry in the class.)

VIII. Prize Money and Entry Fee

- A. Prize money must be paid to a minimum of 12 places as follows:

1 st – 30%	7 th – 4%
2 nd – 22%	8 th – 3%
3 rd – 13%	9 th – 3%
4 th – 8%	10 th – 2%
5 th – 6%	11 th – 2%
6 th – 5%	12 th – 2%

1. Competitions wishing to offer additional prize money above the minimum required (including any add-back money if applicable) and pay additional placings must print the information in the prize list and notify the USHJA of the final prize money distribution. If a change in prize money and placings occurs after the prize list is printed, the competition must follow all Federation rules regarding changes to the prize list (See GR904). The prize money awarded to each placing below 12th place must not exceed the amount awarded to 12th place.
- B. If there are less than 12 entries in the class, prize money must be paid according to the breakdown in Section IX.A through the last placing entry. Any remaining prize money not awarded due to less than 12 entries may be split and awarded equally to all entrants that place in the class.
- C. A minimum of $1,500 prize money must be offered per class at Channel I (Premier and National) competitions and competitions that have been approved for a Special Competition classification.
- D. A minimum of $500 prize money must be offered per class at Channel II (Regional)
- E. A competition may choose to offer add-back prize money in addition to the prize money offered, however, the minimum required prize money must be guaranteed. If add-back prize money is offered, this must be stated in the prize list.
- F. The entry fee, including the per pony entrant fee, cannot exceed 10% of the prize money offered.

IX. Competition Requirements

- A. A USHJA Pony Hunter Derby may be offered at Federation Licensed Channel I and Channel II competitions, or competitions that have been approved for a Special Competition classification.
- B. Competition Management will collect and remit to USHJA the $35 per pony entrant fee at Channel I (Premier and National) competitions and competitions that have been approved for a Special Competition classification, and the $25 per pony entrant fee at Channel II (Regional) competitions.
- C. No more than one Pony Hunter Derby may be held during a given competition and that class may not be split by pony size.
- D. Competition management will remit complete overall results, including prize money awarded, to USHJA and the Federation within 10 days of the conclusion of the competition.
- E. For all classes, competition management is required to provide copies of the course to riders a minimum of one hour prior to the start of the course walk and is encouraged to have them available for spectators.
- F. The Pony Hunter Derby is a featured class of the competition, and must be presented as such with regard to arena size and location, jump quality, decorations, footing and ring preparation, lighting, etc. The ring used must have spectator seating, a quality sound system, and a dedicated announcer with no other duties during the Derby.
- G. Competition management cannot run a Pony Hunter Derby and a Pony Hunter Classic at the same show unless the Derby is run on a separate day from the Classic.

X. Judging Requirements

- A. Each class must have a minimum of two judges. All judges will sit together and provide one score.
- B. One judge must be an R judge; the other may be either an R or r judge.
- C. All judges must be Federation licensed and in good standing with the Federation and USHJA.
- D. No guest cards will be granted for this competition.
