

EXAMPLE
Affiliate Equitation Awards Options

Using the Los Angeles Hunter Jumper Association as an example, the LAHJA could offer one of the following options:

If LAHJA selected Option 1, the award winners would be:

- 1) LAHJA Pony Medal Final winner (follows USEF pony hunter heights)
- 2) LAHJA Junior Medal Finals winner (fences 3'3")
- 3) LAHJA Senior Medal Finals winner (fences 3'3")

If LAHJA selected Option 2, the award winners would be:

- 1) LAHJA Pony Equitation champion
- 2) LAHJA Junior Equitation "A" level – highest scoring rider between the 14 & under and 15-17 age groups
- 3) LAHJA Amateur Equitation champion

If LAHJA selected Option 3, the award winners would be:

- 1) The top three from the LAHJA Horsemastership Scholarship Competition
This is a three-phase competition requiring junior riders to submit a video of themselves competing at a show in the current year and they are judged on the standards of the Equitation Division, a written test, and a hands-on stable management test. Complete program rules and specifications are attached.
