MARY ANN SIMONDS:

The Village of Wellington has put out a PSA for safe riding while sheltering. Just sharing. They are encouraging us to keep riding, but with health standards https://www.youtube.com/watch?feature=em-uploademail&v=4nlyjZNb4Wg&fbclid=IwAR051E0KVR-5lyJojKEIRHh4Ybw_Xqn9dsCcdf1-DYesbZfHZpntTPLjVc78&app=desktop

KATHY HOBSTETTER:

Can shows that had to cancel now be set an resheduled on top of a show scheduled for this fall.

00:38:51

ALEXANDRA ZULIA:

DO you know if anyone from "equestrian" has a voice on the "re-entry" White House Task Force? Besides Racing has anyone been in touch with the White House?

01:04:04

LINDSAY ARCHER:

You can donate through CPHA Foundation for a variety of staff at the shows or for riding schools that have been shut down.

01:05:18

SAMSUNG-SM-N950U:

The Show Jumping Relief Fund has been set up to benefit individuals who worked at horse shows and have become suddenly unemployed. They have a Facebook page.

01:10:09

SARAH WATSON:

Is there anything that the State organizations can do to help support USHJA right now? I am speaking for CHJA (Colorado)

01:10:39

MARY ANN SIMONDS:

Thanks you Mary. Wonderful you are doing this - Wondering if others would like to see what Wellington has put together

01:11:50

AIMEE WILSON:

If no spectators are allowed, how about coordinating with RideTV to show large shows live or delayed?

01:11:53

SARAH WATSON:

Tthanks mary

01:12:08

JOHN BERKOS:

Will USHJA clinics be under same guidelines as horse shows? or any discussion on clinics as of yet?

01:12:45

JOHN BERKOS:

Yes, and TCP clinics. Thanks Mary

01:12:49

AIMEE WILSON:

Thank you so much for your time. would love these info webinars.

01:12:57

NICOLE NORRIS:

Thank you Mary, we all appreciate your efforts to communicate at a time that is so precarious.
