Pony

The Pony Task Force is a Hunter Working Group Task Force that reports to the Hunter Working Group.

Members shall serve terms of two years.

The work of the Pony Task Force supports the USHJA mission, which is to serve our members through educational programs, awards and recognition, communication and rules.

The task force's goal is to:

- Promote and advance the sport by encouraging participation at the pony hunter level.

The purpose of the Pony Task Force is to evaluate the pony hunter rules as the sport evolves and promote participation in pony divisions nationwide.

Provide assistance in the production of the U.S. Pony Finals and USHJA Pony Finals Clinics.

Responsibilities:

- Consider how rules affect Pony Hunter rider and suggest or review proposed rule changes if necessary
- Provide assistance in the production of the U.S. Pony Finals and USHJA Pony Finals Clinics
- Evaluate the needs related to the pony divisions across the country.
- Recommend judges for the U.S. Pony Finals Judges to the USEF
- U.S. Pony Finals Event Evaluation, Fundraising, Production and Improvement Recommendations
